

To celebrate 25 years of World Book Day, we have a week of special events and activities planned to celebrate World Book Day 2022.

Monday 28th February

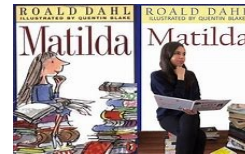

To celebrate World Book Day 2022, World Book Day is going LIVE and screening Matilda and friends live from the Cambridge Theatre at 11.30am on Monday 28th February, with an exciting line up of authors. As many of our children have studied books written by Roald Dahl, and use the book, Matilda, in Y5, our pupils will be invited to watch the screening from their classrooms.

Tuesday 1st March – Pancake Day! Look for a Book!

On your walk to or from school, will you find one of the books we have hidden out and about near school? Send us a picture of you reading the book you find!

Wednesday 2nd March Recreate a Book Cover!

Can you recreate the cover of one of your favourite books?

Thursday 3rd March – The Masked Reader! And Shelfies!

We will be sharing videos of some masked readers sharing a collection of poems and some pictures of their book shelves. Can you work out who each reader is? Add their names into the table (your teacher will give it to you) and then submit it to your teachers! Will you guess them all correctly?

Also on Thursday... Book & Bagel at breakfast!

All parents are welcome to join us in the Breakfast Club from 8am to share a 'Book & Bagel' with their child.

Bring your favourite book from home, or read one of ours with your child.

Thursday 3rd March – Dress up

To celebrate World Book Day, children can dress up as a character or a word from their favourite book.

50p donation.

Prize for the best dressed!

World Book Day tokens will be sent home.

Friday 4th March - Little People: Big Dreams!

We will finish the week by all listening to the book, 'Little People BIG DREAMS: Captain Tom Moore' – he's one of our Coleridge Leads The Way Team Captains! We will then send home an activities menu linked to the book. We can't wait to see what you choose to complete!

Scholastic Book Fair will be in school from Monday 4th April—Thursday 7th April.3—3:30pm in the school hall.
